

News From the Kirk Session

We have heard officially, that our linkage with St John's Kirk was broken on December 31, 2023. We are currently a stand-alone church, with a plan to unite with Craigie/Moncreiffe. Joint services have been fairly successful, as we try to work together, as one worshipping community on the South side of Perth.

We still have Rev Craig Dobney as our Interim Moderator and he is working hard to find us a locum minister. In the meantime, we have been served so well by a large group of visiting preachers, including retired ministers Alex Stewart, Philip Majcher, Alasdair Graham, Sandy Gunn and Gerald Bostock. At the opposite end of the experience spectrum, we have been able to give Elane Sassenberg and Alan McKay some additional pulpit experience. In addition, we have enjoyed welcoming back Pat Munro (previously our Pastoral Assistant) and David Johnston (Church of Scotland Reader).

Please come and join us over the summer and hear what they have to say. We have a roll of 312, but only about 50-60 attending most Sundays. Three ladies who are members of other churches, have been coming regularly and I know they appreciate the warm, friendly welcome they receive. Even if you have fallen out of the habit of coming along on Sunday mornings ... it's never too late.

There are other opportunities for you to feel part of our church family too. Come along to our singing group "Songs and Memories", which is a fun filled afternoon that is sure to lift your spirits. Edna plays with such joy and you are sure to know many of the songs, that are specially chosen to evoke sweet memories. A real treat is in store for us each month, as Edna invites singers from her Cabaret choir to come along and sing for us. Dates over the summer are June 17, July 15 and August 19 - 2-4pm in the hall.

If you are a keen walker, but don't like to walk on your own, please join the Walking Group on one of their organised walks for fresh air, good exercise and great company...weather not guaranteed!

If you are less active, you are warmly invited to join the Book Group. Why not consider reading some of the books they have suggested over the summer and join them for a lovely open afternoon on June 25, to meet this friendly group?

Whatever you decide to do, please keep in touch with us, in person or through your church visitor.

Have a wonderful summer, filled with peace and joy,

With kindest regards,

Beryl Smeaton

Letter from our Interim Moderator

You wouldn't think so looking out of the window watching the pouring rain but summer is upon us! The days are longer, the sun warms us and the gentle breeze refreshes us; at least that is what should happen. The Scottish climate often decides differently.

There are lots of exciting events ahead especially if you are in to sport. We have Scotland playing in the European Championships, Great Britain competing in the Paris Olympics, The Open, Wimbledon and so on. We now also have a General Election to look forward to on the 4th of July just to keep us on all on our toes.

A myriad of local events will take place around the Perth area too and I'm sure you will all have your own favourites you try to attend year on year.

As human beings we crave the warmth and the light of the summer sun especially after such a long and dreary winter. It feels good for our bodies and our minds to be out of the darkness and into the longer hours of daylight and warmth. Some of you may remember your science lessons at school where you may have come across the word photosynthesis where light energy from the sun is converted to chemical energy in plants and algae necessary to provide the sugars, cellulose and starches vital for the plant's survival.

Light is vital for survival. In the book of Genesis, the very first thing God says is 'Let there be light' and there was light and God saw that the light was good' Genesis 1:3- 4.

We need light.

Think of the light of Christ as a kind of spiritual photosynthesis.

We need the light that Jesus brings into our lives just as plants need the light of the Sun to thrive.

We as Christians are asked to reflect that light onto others in turn so that they too may benefit from the spiritual photosynthesis knowing Jesus brings. So, this summer, in amongst all the business that is going on around you, take time to bask in the glorious light of the living Lord Jesus and share that light with all you meet along the way.

Blessing to you all.

Rev Craig Dobney
Interim Moderator

Ladies of the Catering Committee unflinching serve coffee and tea after the Service on Sundays. These refreshments are enjoyed by members of the Congregation giving the opportunity to chat together. We would like more volunteers to help on Sundays as the Team Leaders are frequently having to double up to help each other. At the same time, I thank those loyal ladies who do help.

Please add your name to the list in the kitchen if you are able to join a team on a Sunday of your choice. Linzee Lindsay

Prayer Shawl Ministry

We come together monthly from all denominations, to share a time of fellowship, talents and a cuppa, of course. Small beginnings saw a project to knit squares, which resulted in four blankets being presented to four city centre churches, who were hoping to work together. Shawls continue to be our project, but local needs are also being met. You are very welcome to join us to knit or crochet, or to learn how to. Our shawls are made to help people to celebrate happy occasions or to offer comfort in sad situations. If you know of anyone who would like a shawl, please contact Moira Laing on 01738 634588. Our group have a break over the Summer and start back on Saturday 28th Sept. from 10am to 12pm.

If anyone would like a shawl to help someone celebrate a happy event or to offer comfort and support in times of sadness, please contact Mary Wright - marypwright27@gmail.com Tel. 07460 002206

Book Group

Last month the Book Group read Black Butterflies by Priscilla Morris. It is set in Sarajevo in the Spring of 1992. It is a very moving story well written and highlights the devastation that war brings to a city. The members of the book group all gave very positive reviews of the book. Other titles recommended by our readers are:

- Trespass by Louise Kennedy
- The Keeper of Stories by Sally Paige

- The Museum of Ordinary People by Mike Gayle
- The Book of Doors by Gareth Brown

We are discussing our annual visit to the Pitlochry Theatre with a proposed date of the 24th July to see Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility. As always friends of the Book Group can join us on this outing - updates to follow. Our June 25th meeting at 2pm in St. Leonard's in the Fields church hall will be an Open Meeting, and our last meeting for this session, the group returning again in September. We hope that some new faces might come along and enjoy the chat. The Book Club wish all our friends a very happy summer and of course happy reading.

Prince Edward Thanks Chaplains for Care Following Queen's Death

The Duke of Edinburgh, Prince Edward, thanked the people of Scotland and the chaplains of the Chapel Royal for their support following the death of his mother, the late Queen Elizabeth II.

Speaking to the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, to which he was welcomed as this year's Lord High Commissioner (the monarch's representative), Prince Edward said that there were times recently he had sensed 'God's care and love'.

He said: "Who could forget the scenes following the passing of my mother? The outpouring of emotions, the demonstrations of respect, love and grief was overwhelming, and a privilege to experience and behold. I think I can speak for my whole family when I say we will remain forever grateful for that support, coming so soon after the passing of my father which of course happened while we were still under pandemic restrictions, made everything far more emotional.

"I was really touched and comforted by the manner in which the chaplains made us all feel behind closed doors and away from public scrutiny. I know it's part of the job description so perhaps I shouldn't have been surprised yet it's not necessarily what they did it's how they did it. Here were centuries of tradition of rituals long practiced, of prayer, of care and comfort."

Prince Edward also praised the outgoing Moderator of the General Assembly, the Very Rev Sally Foster-Fulton, for 'a wonderful year', saying 'your warmth and personality has charmed everyone, here and abroad'.

And he welcomed this year's Moderator, the Rt Rev Dr Shaw Paterson, saying it was 'a fitting recognition of more than 30 years of service to the Church'. He also echoed the theme of Dr Paterson's year, 'Building Together': "The analogy is clear: you can't construct something unless you work together, and if the builders don't work together then the construction not only takes longer but is unlikely to be any good."

Earlier, Dr Paterson said he was 'very humbled' to be appointed Moderator. He emphasised his own experience of negotiating a four-way union in his own parish and pledged 'I will listen and I will be there and I will care' in meeting Church members going through difficult situations. "Though every situation is different, I know something of what congregations the length and breath of the country are going through."

In her address as outgoing Moderator, Mrs Foster-Fulton urged the Church to continue seeking to do justice, whether in work such as foodbanks, warm hubs and community spaces, in 'demanding justice from those who might seek to withhold it', or in work such as reckoning with the legacy of slavery (which will be addressed later in the week). "The impacts are not a far-distant, nothing-to-do with-us history," she said. "People struggle every day with the shadow racism casts, with what entrenched colonial models impose."

Flowers are such a Joy

We are lucky in our Kirk to always have a colourful arrangement of real flowers on our chancel on a Sunday morning or in the hall in the winter. Everyone loves and appreciates this.

We are so grateful to our ladies who spend time buying these, gathering greenery and arranging them for our pleasure.

Then when we deliver them to our members, whom we feel need some cheer, we experience further pleasure when they share their appreciation with us.

Thank you flower arrangers for your generous gifts of time and skill.

We love your flowers.

If you feel that you would like to make a contribution, the flower committee is very grateful and delighted for all donations received.
